

Alexandria Gazette.

THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 6, 1882.

LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES, July 6, 1882.
Fair weather is indicated on Friday in the Middle States.

U. S. COURTS.—The United States Circuit and District Courts Judge Robert W. Hughes presiding, continued in this city to-day. The grand jury was called as follows: Herbert Bryant, foreman, E. S. Leadbeater, Benjamin Barton, R. T. Lucas, Geo. P. Dongas, W. H. Bates, John H. Burroughs, Geo. E. Williams, Stacy H. Snowden, Luther R. Ashby, Geo. Triplett, Wm. F. Humphrey, Enoch Trenton, H. O'Brien, Wm. Hunter, Jr., J. Z. Eggleston and John J. Jamieson. After being sworn the grand jury retired to their room, and upon returning presented the following:

John J. Robertson, for violation of internal revenue law in distilling fruit brandy without a license, a true bill; W. S. Clarke, for violation of revenue law in dealing in tobacco without having paid the special tax, not a true bill.

The jury then adjourned till to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The petit jury will meet to-morrow.

The case of Lambie and others against Capt. Conway, of the libeled schooner R. P. King, was fixed for Saturday next.

The case of A. G. Williams against Robertson and Marrye, trustees, and the Birmingham Coal and Iron Co., and others, was dismissed, and both Courts then adjourned till to-morrow morning.

Several cases of violation of internal revenue laws are to come before the grand jury to-morrow morning.

Capt. John S. Wise, the new District Attorney, made his first appearance in the Court to-day. Among the lawyers present were Major John W. Daniel, of Lynchburg, Judge Atkins, the new readjuster Judge of the Richmond Hustings Court, Hon. James B. Burroughs, of Culpeper, Gen. Wm. H. Payne and Col. Thomas Smith, of Warrenton.

A CELEBRATION WITH A BAD ENDING.—A large crowd was collected on King street this morning by the antics of a man and a woman, both very much intoxicated, in a wagon. They occupied both sides of the street, and everything had to give way for them. The horse appeared to be as drunk as the occupants of the wagon. The free exhibition was continued until officer Lawler came along and drove the couple to the station house, where they were locked up. The man was too drunk to talk, but the woman was lively. She gave her name as Mollie Curtis, and said she came from Frederickburg, and could whip any man who dared to say it was not the best old town in the world. She further stated that the Fourth of July being a rainy day she and her friend, whose name she did not know, determined to have their celebration to-day; that they would have had a good deal of fun if they had not been arrested, and that if she was released at once she wouldn't say anything to anyone about the affair. The horse and wagon were placed at Mr. Chatham's stable until this afternoon, when the man and woman were taken before the Mayor.

SIX MONTHS IN JAIL FOR PROFANITY.—Justice Wormley, colored, of Alexandria county, evidently has very strong prejudices against profane language. Anthony Kemp, colored, got drunk on the Fourth of July, met one of his fellow citizens in Freedman's Village and gave him a good round cursing for his want of patriotism. Kemp was arrested and taken before Justice Wormley, who committed him to jail for six months. The profane man, who is now in the jail in this city, thinks it pretty hard that a man can't express his mind freely when he feels like it, and says if all the men in the county were sent to jail for swearing there could not be a building secured large enough to hold them.

THE IRON WORKS AND SHIP YARDS.—Preparations are being made for a resumption of operations at the works of the Potomac Manufacturing Company in this city to-morrow. A quantity of new made iron will be shipped North in a few days.

The work of putting up the frame of the new vessel to be built at the yard of the above company is progressing favorably. Another load of timber is expected there in a few days.

The work of rigging the new schooner Ellwood Harlow at Messrs. J. P. Agnew & Co's, shipyard will be commenced shortly.

POLICE NEWS.—There were before the Mayor this morning George Nowland charged with cutting off the tail of a Maltese cat belonging to George Brown, the barber, and David Stewart, colored, arrested for keeping a disorderly place across the canal. Stewart was dismissed with a reprimand and the hearing of George Brown's complaint against George Nowland was continued till to-morrow morning.

THE SPECIAL ELECTION.—The special election in the second ward for a member of the Common Council from that ward to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mr. Leonard Marbury, has progressed so quietly all day that very few persons knew that an election was going on. Only 146 votes had been polled up to four o'clock. There is no opposition to Mr. F. A. Kerby, sr., the democratic nominee for the position.

FOURTH OF JULY CHICKEN FIGHTS. Chickens belonging to Alfonso Arrington, of this city, won five fights out of seven at Old Field, Md., Tuesday last. One of Arrington's chickens won two fights after being "baptized" in the river, and another fought for some time after having his wing broken. There was a large number of Washington and Baltimore chickens on the field.

COMMERCIAL.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET, July 6.—The market today is a shade firmer and prices have an upward tendency. Wheat sold at 120½ to 121 for Fultz, 130 for mixed and 132½ to 135 for Lancaster, the latter price for a choice lot of old. About 3000 bushels of Corn were offered which sold at 92 for yellow and 96 for good white. One lot of Rye sold at 75. No Oats reported. Country produce is quiet at last quotations.

QUEENSTOWN CATTLE MARKET, July 4.—The offerings this week consisted of 120 cattle: 1021 Sheep and Lambs, and 15 Cows and Calves. Cattle sold at 3 to 7½; Sheep at 3 to 4½; Lambs at 1 to 2½; and milk Cows at $20 to $40. Owing to the very light supply of stock, the market was fully ½ to ¾ cts higher and closed sharp.

QUEENSTOWN CATTLE MARKET, July 5.—Offerings of 44 Cattle, 50 Sheep and Lambs, and 4 Cows and Calves. Owing to the scarcity of stock the market closed early and strong, leaving a large number of butchers without any Cattle. Prices nominal.
